Led by all-MVC performers Leah Ratzlaff and Brittany Coleman, look for Creighton to make a push for the postseason while trying to attain their first 20-win season in the modern era. Eleven letterwinners and four starters return from a Bluejay team that won 18 matches a year ago.

One of three seniors on the 2005 team, Ratzlaff enters the season as one of the top offensive players in the nation. After leading the MVC as a sophomore with a CU-record 516 kills, Ratzlaff improved her hitting percentage to .259 while breaking her own mark with 4.52 kills per game as a junior.

Ratzlaff had double-digit kills in all 29 matches and leads the nation with 51 straight matches of 10 or more kills entering 2005.

Helping to get the ball to Ratzlaff on a consistent basis has been Coleman, a second-team all-MVC setter last season. Coleman owns the top two single-season assist marks in Bluejay history but could see time as the Jays libero this fall.

A possible move to libero by Coleman would clear the way for freshman Korie Lebeda to be the team's setter. One of the top preps in the country last year, Lebeda is a sound passer who could see significant tmie in her rookie season.

It appears as though Creighton is loaded with attackers on the outside heading into the fall. In addition to Ratzlaff, CU returns Katy Grady, Carolyn Decker and Abby Baumann to the fold.

Grady has started 39 matches in her career and owns the Jays' top two hitting percentages in Bluejay history. She enters her senior campaign with 408 kills and 139 total blocks.

Decker made an immediate impact while earning a spot on the MVC's all-Freshman team. Decker fought off an early-season injury to average 2.70 kills per game. An explosive player, the Bellevue native was among the team's most consistent attackers and also ranked fourth in the league in aces per game.

Fellow freshman Baumann shined when given the starting role, posting two double-doubles in her three starts. A versatile player, look for Baumann to see increased time this fall with a year of experience under her belt.

Keying the returnees in the middle is another sophomore, Kelly Goc. Goc joined Decker on the MVC's all-Freshman team and capped her year as the Jays' lone representative on the State Farm all-MVC Tournament Team. Goc turned her play up a notch down the stretch and ended up third on the team in both kills per game and blocks per game.

Joining Goc in the middle/right side will be junior Julianne Jackson. Jackson has spent the past two seasons backing up three-year starters Sarah Beulke and Ashley Williams, but could see an increased role this fall. Newcomers Amanda Cvejdlik and Jessica Houts will also be thrown into the fire as true freshmen in the battle for time in the middle.

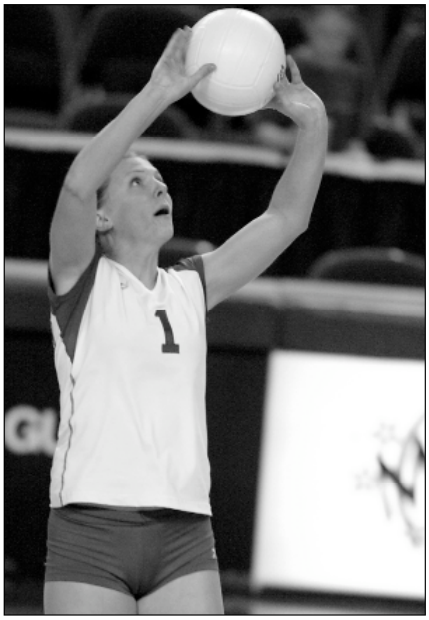
Leah Ratzlaff

Rounding out the defense will be four players with experience in the back row.

Senior Molly Lahr played in 23 matches last season as a defensive replacement. She has played in 78 matches in her career. Junior Emily Greisch plays mostly in the back row and has two years of experience.

Sophomore Mallory Lahm paced the team in aces last year while also providing the team a strong defensive presence. Classmate Katie Mehal was used primarily for serving late in the year and is the team's lone southpaw. She could see additional action as a defensive specialist this year.

After winning a pair of tournaments last fall, the Jays will try their luck while hosting their own event. In addition to its' always-challenging MVC slate, Creighton also faces defending national champion Stanford as well as Big 12 powers Nebraska and Kansas State on the road this year.



Brittany Coleman

Kirsten Bernthal Booth (far right) talks to Carolyn Decker (6), Brittany Coleman (1) and Kelly Goc (12)

Native Nebraskan Kirsten Bernthal Booth enters her third season as head coach of the Creighton volleyball program.

Booth has engineered one of the nation's greatest turnarounds, improving the Jays by 15 wins over the past two seasons.

In addition to academic recognition from the AVCA, her teams have competed in consecutive Missouri Valley Conference Tournaments while also setting school records for consecutive matches won and wins in a season.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, a key factor in the team's record crowds the past two seasons. Last year's squad averaged 673 fans per home match while attracting eight of the 10 largest single-match crowds in school history.

In just two seasons, Booth has coached one first-team and three second-team all-MVC picks, while also recruiting and coaching three MVC all-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have also included seven members of the MVC Scholar-Athlete Team in that time. All 59 matches with her as head coach at Creighton have included at least one freshman in the starting line-up.

Booth's 2004 club won a program-best 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. That team put together an early seven-match winning streak that included victories over teams from the Big 12 (Missouri), Big Ten (Iowa), Southeastern (Mississippi State) and Mountain West Conferences (New Mexico).

CU was also the only club in the league to beat the regular-season and tournament champion, Wichita State, in 2004. The Jays five-game victory over the Shockers improved CU's record in five-game matches under Booth to an impressive 9-1.

In 2003, Booth inherited a team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut season at Creighton. That fall, the Bluejays helped pave the foundation for a promising future by signing five Nebraska products that composed one of the nation's most-heralded recruiting classes.

Booth enters her third season as head coach at Creighton with an impressive past, both on and off the court.

On the court, Booth was an all-state setter in high school at Lincoln East and conference MVP in college at Truman State.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors, was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year, earned her Master's degree, and has been named District Coach of the Year twice in her five seasons on the bench.

The Booth family: Kirsten, Erik and Reese

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches.

2004	18	11	.621	Record 18 wins, 2 tournament titles
Total (2)	30	29	.508

Her first team went 37-12 and reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. For these efforts in her debut season, she was named the District C Coach of the Year.

In her second season, her team went 36-18, finished fourth at the NJCAA Tournament, and she was honored as the American Volleyball Coaches Association NJCAA Midwest Coach of the Year, while also repeating her District C Coach of the Year laurels as well.

Her final club won 39 matches and had seven players earn All-Academic honors from the Iowa Community College Athletic Conference. In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her Master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

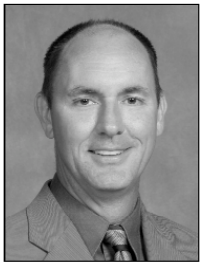
As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54 with her running the offense at setter. She was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned all-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well.

She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She remains among Truman's all-time leaders for digs (1,410), aces (127) and blocks (230).

A member of the Student Senate at Truman State where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications, she was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at #1 singles. She was also a second-team all-state volleyball player.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. They have one daughter, Reese (born May 14, 2005).



Paul Giesselmann

Paul Giesselmann enters his third year at Creighton as an assistant coach.

Giesselmann serves as the program's recruiting coordinator while also organizing all fundraising efforts. With his recommendations, Creighton has offered and signed the top prep players in Nebraska and the Midwest to complete a pair of top recruiting classes.

Creighton's 2004 squad won tournaments at both Missouri and New Mexico, and Giesselmann helped coach Kelly Goc and Carolyn Decker to a spot on the MVC's all-Freshman team.

In Giesselmann's first season, Creighton improved from seventh to fourth in the MVC in blocking, as Ashley Williams rewrote the school's single-match and single-season blocking records. Along the way, CU also set new school records with 413 block assists, 285.5 total blocks and 2.48 blocks per game.

Giesselmann spent eight seasons as head coach at the College of St. Mary's in Omaha, amassing an overall record of 227-80 before leaving in 2001 to spend time with his family.

While at CSM, Giesselmann had five teams win 30 or more matches and was named Midland Collegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year each of his last seven seasons. In addition, he was also named Tachikara Regional Coach of the Year four times (1996, '99, '00, '01) and picked up 2000 NAIA National Coach of the Year accolades.

He won the Omaha Sportscasters Recognition Award in both 1996 and 2000. In 1999, the Omaha World-Herald named him as the Nebraska State College Women's Coach of the Year.

His teams won AVCA national team academic awards all eight years and had 11 All-American Scholar-Athletes. He also coached 12 All-Americans, 21 all-region selections and 33 all-MCAC picks. His student-athletes were honored as Regional Player of the Year three times and Conference Player of the Year on five occasions. His squads also won the MCAC Tournament his final seven seasons and were regular-season champs the final six campaigns. The program reached its highest-ever national ranking in 2000 when they were ranked second.

Prior to going to CSM, Giesselmann was an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska-Omaha in 1993-94. He also was a head volleyball coach at Duchesne Academy of the Sacred Heart (1992-93) and at Winside HS (1988-92) in both volleyball and basketball.

Giesselmann and his wife, Dr. Paige Groppe, have twin nine-year-old boys, Hunter and Garret.

Angie Oxley

A former national champion and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley returns for her third season as an assistant coach at Creighton.

Oxley works with Creighton's camps while also organizing game management responsibilities.

She has played a key role in the development of outside hitter Leah Ratzlaff, who has earned all-MVC accolades the past two seasons while also rewriting the school's record book for kills in a season. Oxley also helped the development of Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc into a spot on the MVC's all-Freshman team.

While at NU, Oxley won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior. She closed her career as the school's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Oxley was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic all-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.

In addition to the success they achieve on the court, field and course, Creighton's student-athletes also serve as community leaders and role models off the court.

The 2004 Creighton Volleyball season included a school-record 18 wins, a pair of tournament titles, and saw more than 25 school records fall. Under the direction of second-year head coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth, the Bluejays used an early seven-match winning streak en route to an 8-1 start and never looked back while having its best season since its 1994 reinstatement.

CU opened the season with its second tournament title in the program's modern history, claiming the Comcast Lobo Invitational in Albuquerque, N.M. After defeating Division I newcomer North Dakota State in the home opener on Sept. 8th, the Jays made the trek to Columbia, Mo., for the Quality Inn Tiger Invitational.

Creighton pulled off one its biggest wins in school history when it beat the host Tigers in four games. Missouri, which was just outside of the top 25 at the time, would later spend several weeks in the top 25 and entered the NCAA Tournament as the #16 seed. After beating Mizzou, Creighton beat SEC foe Mississippi State and an Arkansas State team that won 25 matches to take a second straight tournament title.

The Jays set a school-record by stretching their win streak to six with a win at Iowa, then made it seven with a sweep over Indiana State to open MVC play.

Though the Jays would suffer three straight losses, they would quickly regroup with four straight wins. A neutral-site match-up in North Platte, Neb., against in-state foe Nebraska proved to be a hot ticket, selling out in less than an hour. Creighton hung tough, but would eventually fall in three games against the Cornhuskers, who later entered the NCAA's as the nation's top seed.

Creighton's most significant win in the conference season was a five-game win over Wichita State. It would be the Shockers' only league loss of the season, and snapped WSU's school-record 13-match win streak.

The Jays would set a new school-record with its 17th win of the year on Nov. 6 at Drake. CU later closed out its home slate with a three-game sweep of Bradley, matching its best home season in history.

CU's bid for 20 wins fell just short, as the Jays would lose their final three matches. Among them was a season-ending three-game defeat to Illinois State in the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament.

Individually, junior Leah Ratzlaff earned first-team all-MVC honors after setting new CU records for kills per game. Sophomore setter Brittany Coleman earned second-team all-Valley accolades while ranking second in the league in assists per game. Coleman would break her own single-season school records for assists and assists per game.

Defensively, senior Janeen Piller ranked among the league's top liberos. Piller closed her career with new Bluejay records for digs and dig average, while also serving as a co-captain for the second straight season. Joining Piller as co-captains were fellow seniors Sarah Beulke, MaryJane Boldt and Ashley Williams.

A talented class of five freshmen also played an impact role on the 2004 team. Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc were both named to the MVC's all-Freshman team. Rounding out the newcomers were Abby Baumann, Mallory Lahm and Katie Mehal.

On hand to witness CU's transformation into a winner were record crowds at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The Jays averaged 673 fans per home match as they attracted eight of the 10 largest single-match crowds in school history.

About These Records

These records only reflect matches played since Creighton Volleyball's reinstatement in 1994. Persons with more information on the previous teams are encouraged to contact the CU Sports Information Office at (402) 280-5544 to help rebuild the past.

Names and records in bold on these pages were set in 2004.

Attack Pct. and Attack Attempts

Attack Percentage = (Kills - Attack Errors) / Attack Attempts
An attack attempt is recorded any time a player attempts to attack (hit strategically) the ball into the opponents court. The ball may be set, spiked, tipped or hit as an overhead contact.

Digs and Digs Per Game

A dig is awarded when a player passes the ball that has been attacked by the opposition. Digs are given only when players receive an attacked ball and it is kept in play, not when a ball is brought up off a "put back" (blocked ball).
Digs Per Game = Digs / Games Played

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.
A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponents court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

Total Blocks and Blocks Per Game

Total blocks are the sum of block assists and block solos. A block is awarded when a player(s) blocks the ball into the opponent's court leading directly to a point.
Blocks Per Game = .5(Block Assists) + Block Solos / Games Played

Points and Points Per Game

Points are a relatively new volleyball stat, having been introduced with the beginning of rally scoring in 2001. Points are awarded for positive contributions that lead directly to a point for a player's team. Points = Kills + Aces + Block Solos + .5(Block Assists)
Points Per Game = Points / Games Played

September 2, 1994: In the program's first match, the Bluejays record a 3-0 win against UT-Chattanooga at the Tulane Invitational in New Orleans. Game scores were 18-16, 15-8, 15-3. Creighton ended its first season with an overall record of 5-20 and tied for ninth in the Missouri Valley Conference at 3-17.

September 10, 1994: Melissa Weisensee records the first triple-double in the history of the program with 40 assists, 19 digs and 10 kills during a four-game loss to Illinois State.

September 9, 1995: Almost a year to the day since Melissa Weisensee recorded CU's first triple-double, JoDe Cieloha accomplishes the feat again with 15 kills, 10 digs and 12 total blocks (11 block assists) in a loss at Bradley.

November 21, 1995: Creighton ends the season with a non-league win versus UMKC to finish with its first-ever double-figure win total at 11-19. The Bluejays also went 6-14 in MVC matches to improve to a tie for seventh place in the standings.

August 31, 1996: With wins against Murray State, UW-Green Bay and UMKC, the Bluejays finish with a 3-1 mark at the Creighton First Serve Festival. It is the first time CU records a winning record at a tourney.

November 2, 1996: Michelle Prorock records a school-record 32 kills in a four-game win over Evansville.

November 10, 1996: JoDe Cieloha finishes with 22 kills, 15 digs and 12 total blocks (two solo) in a five-game loss at Western Illinois for her second career triple-double performance.

November 9, 1997: Melissa Weisensee registers her second career triple-double, and the fourth in Creighton annals, by finishing with 65 assists, 22 digs and 12 kills in a five-game loss at Evansville.

November 20, 1997: After its best-ever third-place finish in the MVC's regular season standings, CU and first-year head coach Howard Wallace make their first appearance at the MVC Tournament. The Jays prove they belong, topping Indiana State in three games.

October 16, 1998: Freshman setter Kailey Reyes joins Creighton's triple-double club and the Bluejays win! The first four triple-doubles had come during Bluejay losses. Reyes ended the night with 62 assists, 21 digs and 10 kills in the five-game win vs. Indiana State.

September 10, 1999: A 3-1 win over Southern Illinois not only helps the Jays successfully open their home and MVC schedules, but also marks the 50th win in the program's sixth year.

October 9, 1999: Creighton posts a 3-2 win at Wichita State, thanks in large part to setter Kailey Reyes' second career triple-double. Reyes, who earned Second-Team All-MVC honors at the end of the season, finished with 47 assists, 11 kills and 11 digs.

November 16, 1999: Melissa Walsh is named to the Missouri Valley Conference's First Team, becoming the first CU volleyball player to have earned the honor. Walsh paced the Bluejays with a school-record 428 kills, plus 338 digs and 104 total blocks (13 solo).

September 2, 2000: The Bluejays finish a perfect season-opening weekend by defeating Iowa State, Idaho and UNC-Greensboro to win the Iowa State Heritage Classic. It marks the first time in program history that the Jays were able to win a tournament. Melissa Walsh was named the tournament's MVP and was joined on the all-tourney team by Kailey Reyes.

October 14, 2000: Kailey Reyes strikes again, recording her third career triple-double and the seventh in CU history. Reyes finished with 71 assists, 17 digs and 13 kills in a five-game win at Indiana State.

November 24, 2000: Melissa Walsh and Kailey Reyes become the first CU duo to earn first team all-MVC accolades in the same year.

July 31, 2001: Creighton is tabbed for second in the MVC's Preseason Coaches Poll, marking the highest spot the Jays have ever attained in the poll. The 1994 squad was tabbed for 11th in the then-11-team league, while 1995's team was predicted 9th, 1996 (9th), 1997 (8th), 1998 (6th), 1999 (tie 7th) and 2000 (4th).

September 8, 2001: Creighton wins game two of its match with #24 Santa Clara on the Broncos home floor. It marks the first game Creighton has ever won against a ranked team in eight matches.

October 6, 2001: Melissa Walsh becomes CU's all-time leader when she pounds her 1,376th career kill vs. Southern Illinois and leads the Bluejays to a best-ever 6-1 MVC start.

October 12, 2001: Molly Moran breaks Melissa Weisensee's school record when she records her 126th career service ace in a win over Bradley. CU opens MVC play 7-1.

November 5, 2001: Melissa Walsh becomes the third player in MVC history to be named MVC Player of the Week on five occasions when she shares the weekly award with Bradley's Stephanie Behrns. Walsh averaged 6.22 kills and hit .505 in three CU wins. CU also starts 11-3 in league play, setting another record for MVC wins in a season.

November 10, 2001: Kailey Reyes sets CU's all-time assists record when she records her 4,019th career assist at Bradley.

November 16, 2001: Kailey Reyes sets her second school record in a week when she sets the career digs mark with 1,224 all-time in CU's win over Wichita State.

November 20, 2001: Melissa Walsh and Kailey Reyes are named first-team all-MVC, while Erin Swanson is a second-team all-league pick. It is Walsh's third straight honor and Reyes' second consecutive. In addition, Ashley Williams is picked to the all-Newcomer squad.

March 19, 2002: Molly Moran is named a National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) All-American Athlete for 2002. CU Strength & Conditioning coach Satoshi Ochi nominated Moran due to her dedication to strength training and conditioning.

September 29, 2002: A crowd of 8,627 fans gather in Lincoln to watch Creighton face #5 Nebraska as part of the Nebraska Volleyball Classic. The attendance figure remains the largest in school history ever to see a Creighton match.

February 3, 2003: Kirsten Bernthal Booth is hired to become the third coach in modern CU Volleyball history. Booth replaces Howard Wallace, who resigned after six seasons on Dec. 10, 2002.

August 29, 2003: Brittany Coleman has 55 assists and 10 digs at Iowa State to join JoDe Cieloha as the only players in school history to debut with a double-double.

September 19, 2003: Creighton moves into the Omaha Civic Auditorium to play its first season of games there. A school-record crowd of 806 fans sees Creighton open MVC play with a five-game victory over Southern Illinois.

November 15, 2003: Leah Ratzlaff's first kill of game two is her 436th of the season, passing Melissa Walsh for most in a single-season in school history.

November 21, 2003: Creighton beats Evansville in four games to clinch its fourth MVC Tournament bid in five years. Brittany Coleman's season-high 69 assists gives her CU's new single-season mark, passing Kailey Reyes' 1,237.

September 4, 2004: Freshman Carolyn Decker serves a school-record eight aces as Creighton downs host New Mexico to win the Comcast Lobo Invitational, the program's second tournament win ever.

September 10, 2004: The Jays upset perennial NCAA Tournament qualifier Missouri in Columbia to open a three-match run to the Quality Inn Tiger Invitational title. Sarah Beulke is named Tournament MVP.

September 17, 2004: Creighton wins its program-best seventh straight match, opening MVC play with a sweep over Indiana State.

October 23, 2004: Creighton defeats eventual MVC regulr-season and tourney champ Wichita State in five games, snapping the Shockers' 13-match win streak.

Creighton's 2001 team won a program-best 12 MVC matches.

Kailey Reyes (1998-2001) is Creighton's all-time leader in triple-doubles (4) and assists (4,207).

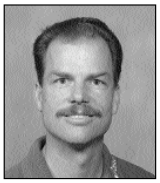
Creighton Volleyball Head Coach History

Ben Guiliano

Ben Guiliano helped lay the groundwork for Creighton volleyball as the man in charge when Creighton reinstated volleyball prior to the 1994 season. Guiliano guided the Bluejays from 1994-96 and posted a 25-58 (.301) winning percentage in that time.



Howard Wallace

Howard Wallace took over prior to the 1997 season and led the Bluejays to four Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearances in his six years on the job. In 1997, Wallace was named the MVC's Co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Jays to a third place finish in league play. He resigned December 10, 2002 with a 68-94 record in six seasons on the Bluejay bench.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Kirsten Bernthal Booth became the program's third head coach with her February 3, 2003 appointment. She owns a record of 30-29 entering 2005.

The spectacular rise of the Missouri Valley Conference continued in 2004-05, and all signs point toward an ongoing resurgence for the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

One year shy of its centennial celebration, the Missouri Valley Conference emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions. Since its inception in 1907, the Missouri Valley Conference has been regarded as a leader by its peers among today's collegiate athletic conferences.

While the Valley took center stage by hosting the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis in 2005, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

Most noteworthy in 2004-05 was the success in the sport of men's basketball. For an amazing seventh consecutive season, the Valley earned multiple berths in the NCAA Tournament. And for only the third time in league history - and the first since 1999 - three conference teams qualified for the Big Dance. Two others qualified for the NIT, marking the first time in Valley history that five men's basketball teams qualified for post-season play.

Led by Wichita State's regular-season and tournament championship and first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, four Valley volleyball schools won 20 or more matches for the first time since 1996. The Shockers swept their first-round opponent (Nevada) in the NCAA Tournament.

Based in St. Louis since 1985, the league is assertive in its approach to hosting NCAA basketball championship events, operating a revenue-producing in-house television network, bidding out the right to play host to sport championships and landing title sponsorships for those events.

The success of the Valley television package is one of the great stories in the league, in terms of the clearance of the men's basketball tournament title game on national broadcast television, the excellent national and regional coverage for basketball and other sports, and the effective sale of advertising content to a more than 25 companies. The MVC Television Network has blossomed into a revenue-generating vehicle and the Valley's most visible marketing tool.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, the Valley's ninth commissioner, the Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. That role came to a spectacular climax in April 2005 as the conference collaborated with local partners to stage the Final Four at the Edward Jones Dome.

This continuing involvement of the MVC in hosting NCAA events represents one of the most concentrated stretches of host opportunities for any university or conference in the 67-year history of the national championship tournament. The 2005 host opportunity was the sixth in eight years for the MVC in St. Louis. The league had previously hosted men's regionals in 1998, 1999, and in 2004; a men's first/second round event in 2002 and the Women's Final Four in 2001. The Valley will host a men's basketball regional in 2007 and a Women's Final Four in 2009. Additionally, Creighton and the Valley will co-host a men's basketball first and second round in 2008 in Omaha.

And while the Missouri Valley Conference has been progressive in pursuing NCAA events, it has continued to be a national leader in the athletic arena. The oldest Division I athletic conference west of the Mississippi River, the Valley has had numerous successes in its storied history, which includes a myriad of accomplishments since the turn of the century.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include four national basketball championships, 17 trips to the NCAA Final Four, and a 1989 national baseball championship. In 2001, Missouri State added to the Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and MSU (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball, while MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003) and Drake (1999) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, The Valley will always continue to be proactive in its approach.

League members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, the University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Missouri State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University and Wichita State University. Affiliate men's soccer members include Eastern Illinois University, Vanderbilt University, and Western Kentucky University.

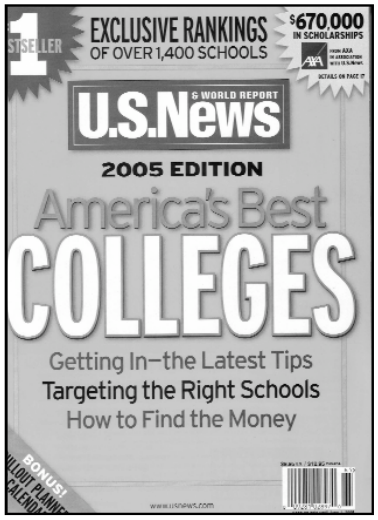
Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., population 409,416 with a combined metropolitan population of 1.1 million people in eight counties.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private co-educational university in the United States, founded by the Society of Jesus and one of 28 member institutions of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities.



In 2005, U.S. News & World Report ranked Creighton No. 1 among Midwest Master's universities.

Creighton Today

The Creighton of today is nationally recognized as the leading comprehensive university in the Midwest. Creighton is synonymous with student centered education and the setting for significant undergraduate student research. As one of 28 universities in America designed in the Jesuit tradition of academic excellence and service to others, Creighton believes in humanistic education through service, reflection and learning. We also seek to create an inclusive, diverse community at the University. Today, Creighton offers more than 50 majors in the undergraduate divisions of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration and the School of Nursing, plus six prestigious professional schools: Medicine, Dentistry, Law, Pharmacy and Health Professions.

The 2004 freshman academic profile places Creighton among the top six private universities in the Midwest, and among the top 10 Catholic universities in the nation. And U.S. News & World Report lists Creighton as a "best value" one of the schools where students get the best return on their tuition investment. Creighton has also been cited as outstanding by other publications, including Money, Kiplinger's Personal Finance and Peterson's Best 311 Colleges, Princeton Review, Inc., also recently ranked Creighton among the nation's top colleges and universities.

Student Life at Creighton

- Ten nationally recognized social fraternities and sororities.
- More than 180 active student clubs and organizations.
- With free high-speed Internet access in each of the eight residence halls, apartment living for juniors and seniors, and a special hall for graduate and married students.
- Creighton is a wireless campus, accommodating the more than 95% of students with mobile computing devices.
- As a Jesuit institution, Creighton makes service a core part of the educational mission. Creighton students, faculty and staff serve all over the U.S. and around the world, in 90 countries and on seven continents. Programs of service include educational outreach, medical and dental assistance, pro bono legal work and more.
- Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in faith retreats, faith sharing opportunities and multi-faith services for more than 30 religions.

Student Snapshot

Creighton students come from every state and more than 65 countries. Of our 6,723 students, 3,888 are enrolled as undergraduates, and 2,835 are in the graduate, law, medical, dental, pharmacy and health professions programs.

The Creighton Campus

At Creighton, we are committed to having the best campus around. The 108-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. To date, Creighton as invested more than $175 million in on-campus improvements and constructed three new buildings, including Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which distinguishes Omaha as the exclusive host of the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events. The Hixson-Lied Science Building and the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building are the centerpiece of a $56 million initiative providing Creighton's undergraduate and health professions a leading edge approach to teaching and research. The Davis Square Town homes are the new upperclassmen town homes that are located on the east side of campus.

At the center of the campus is the historic St. John's Church, the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, a modern student center and physical fitness facility.

The Hixson-Lied Science Building opened in the spring of 2003.

Community Service & Outreach

At Creighton, students have the opportunity to live the Jesuit Mission - to become a part of the Jesuit belief of the value and dignity of the individual. With an emphasis on service and social justice, the Creighton education will give students the foundation for a life well lived. Last year, Creighton faculty, staff and students volunteered in 60 agencies in the greater Omaha area, providing service in more than 100 programs supported by the University and Medical Center.

Faculty

- A total of 1,526 faculty members.
- Student-to-faculty ratio of 13:1.
- At Creighton, the faculty is conducting internationally recognized work in many areas, including hereditary cancer, osteoporosis, hearing impairment, bone metabolism, regional economics and more.

2004-05 Athletics Highlights

- Creighton serves as the annual host institution for the NCAA College World Series. June 16-26, 2006 will mark the 57th consecutive year the CWS comes to Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha.

- Creighton student-athletes owned a GPA of 3.33 last spring, an all-time high.

- The men's basketball program set an MVC record with its seventh straight 20-win season while advancing to the NCAA Tourney for the sixth time in seven years.

- The women's basketball team played in the WNIT, its fourth straight postseason.

- The baseball team won its' first-ever MVC regular-season title, advanced to Regional play and finished 48-17. Ed Servais earned MVC Coach of the Year honors for the second straight year.

- The men's soccer team capped its 13th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance while remaining the only program with at least one selection in every MLS draft. The program has made three College Cup showings since 1996.

- One of the premier soccer venues in the country, the Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium was named and dedicated.

- The softball team won its third straight MVC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA's for the fourth time in seven years.

- Creighton will co-host the first two rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at Qwest Center OMAHA™ on March 20 & 22, 2008.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

CU Athletics on the Web

Visit the official home page of the Bluejays at http://www.gocreighton.com to get the latest news on Creighton Athletics.

- The site contains updated rosters, schedules, statistics and links on everything related to CU Athletics.

- The majority of Creighton's home volleyball schedule is audio webcast, free of charge, for fans unable to make the game.

- The site also offers a photo gallery containing close to 500 pictures of Bluejay volleyball players and coaches in game action.

- Live stats for volleyball, basketball, soccer, baseball and softball.

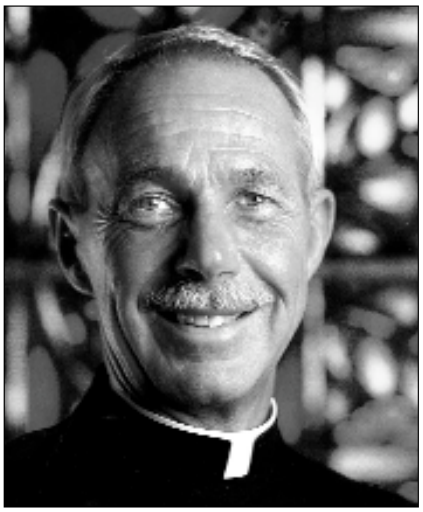
Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J.



Under the leadership of Creighton President the Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J., Creighton University is nationally recognized as the leading comprehensive university in the Midwest and within the Jesuit network of universities.

Fr. Schlegel became Creighton University's 23rd president in August 2000, following nine years as president of the University of San Francisco.

Fr. Schlegel is leading Creighton into a new era of growth and prosperity. Through his vision, the University is embarking on its most ambitious campus expansion in its 127-year history. Creighton University will become a national model showcasing a dynamic faith-based living and learning community in a 21st century urban environment.

Fr. Schlegel has initiated changes that have enhanced the already nationally recognized academic quality of Creighton and the beauty of the campus. During his tenure several new construction projects have taken place or are in progress. Creighton renovated and is expanding its Integrated Science Center, which includes the new Hixson-Lied Science Building and totally renovated Rigge Science and Criss Medical buildings. Creighton's Science Center and the Creighton University Medical Center provide a national model for interdisciplinary health sciences education and research.

The newly built, beautiful red brick Junior-Senior Town Homes anchor Creighton's eastward expansion that is taking shape nearby Omaha's dynamic downtown and riverfront redevelopment. Creighton's campus expansion to the east and west will provide Omaha with a park-like setting, offering green spaces, pathways and plazas. Add to that the new Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which is among the premier college campus soccer facilities in the nation.

Prior to his service at the University of San Francisco, Fr. Schlegel was Creighton University's assistant academic vice president (1978-82), academic dean of Rockhurst College (1982-84), dean of arts and sciences at Marquette University (1984-88), and executive and academic vice president at John Carroll University (1988-91).

Fr. Schlegel, a native of Dubuque, Iowa, entered the Society of Jesus in 1963 and was ordained in 1973. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from Saint Louis University; a B.D. honors degree in theology from the University of London; and a doctorate in international relations from Oxford University.

He is a member of numerous international, national and local boards of directors, executive committees and associations. Fr. Schlegel is a past member of the board of trustees of Chicago's Loyola University, Xavier University, Loyola University of the South, St. Louis University and Loyola College in Maryland. Fr. Schlegel also is a director of the American International School of Hong Kong.

In Omaha, he serves on several boards including Creighton University Medical Center, Creighton Preparatory School, Duchesne Academy, and Opera Omaha. He is a member of the board of directors and serves on the Executive Committees of the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce, Joslyn Art Museum and Mid-America Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Previously, he has held numerous board positions with an array of organizations including St. Mary's Medical Center Foundation, Il Cenacolo, Coro, World Affairs Council of Northern California, the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, where he served as chair of the National Student Aid Task Force, and Heythrop College at the University of London.

Fr. Schlegel also has served on accreditation site visits for the North Central Association, and was a consultant to the Organization for Economic Development and Cooperation based in Paris.

In May of 2004 the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society Lodge 1 in Omaha presented him with the 2004 Honored Citizen Award for his outstanding leadership of Creighton University. For his promotion of understanding and respect among all races, religions and cultures, Fr. Schlegel received the Otto Swanson Spirit of Service Award from the National Conference for Community and Justice in May 2003. Fr. Schlegel also received the first Champion of Greatness Award from Special Olympics Nebraska.

He enjoys opera, classical music, gourmet cooking, racket sports and the outdoors.

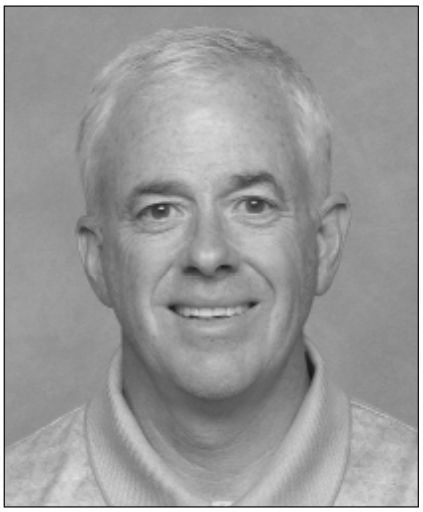
UNIVERSITY

Fr. John P. Schlegel, S.J., stands outside the Administration Building talking with students, an activity he enjoys year-round. Fr. Schlegel became Creighton's 23rd president in August, 2000.



Bruce Rasmussen is in his 12th year as director of athletics, and 26th overall at Creighton University.

During his tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on-and-off the field, impressive new facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

The men's soccer team is one of a handful of schools to appear in each of the last 13 NCAA Tournaments, while the men's basketball team is just the third team in the 98-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to reach the postseason in eight straight campaigns. Combined, Creighton is the only school in the country that can claim eight consecutive postseason appearances in men's soccer and men's basketball.

The Creighton softball team has made three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and ranked as high as 19th nationally last year, while the baseball team won its first regular-season league title and finished the year in the national rankings.

Four Creighton teams moved to new facilities in 2003-04. The men's basketball team moved to the riverfront to play in the brand new, $291 million, Qwest Center OMAHA™. In their new confines, the Jays averaged an MVC-best 12,016 fans per game and attracted nine of the top 10 home crowds in school history.

The Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium opened as one of the premier soccer venues in the country. Located on the east edge of the Creighton campus, the complex includes 5,000 seats and will serve as the home for the 2005 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Women's Soccer Tournament this fall.

Additionally, the Creighton volleyball team found a new home at the venerable Omaha Civic Auditorium in 2003. The move closer to campus paid big dividends, as the program established a new average attendance mark.

Rasmussen also has continued to make outstanding hires at every opportunity. Most recently, Kirsten Bernthal Booth has helped the volleyball team improve by 15 wins in her first two seasons, while Ed Servais has earned MVC Coach of the Year honors in each of his first two years.

Another recent hire, women's basketball's Jim Flanery, matched the league record with 48 wins in his first two seasons. He has led three straight teams to the postseason. CU's 2004 women's basketball team won the school's first postseason national title of any kind when they won the WNIT.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen plays a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. The CWS has established new attendance records in each of the past three years at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award.

In terms of academics, Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Last spring, Bluejay student-athletes had an average GPA of 3.33, an all-time high.

Creighton's primary annual fund-raising events are the Bluejay Bash, the Bluejay Golf Marathon and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's supervision, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2004 Jamboree generated more than $319,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

The successful fund-raising efforts have allowed Creighton to enhance its soccer, baseball and softball facilities under Rasmussen's leadership. In 1998, the $1.7 million Student-Athlete Support Center renovation project was completed in the Old Gymnasium, resulting in seven new team locker rooms, an expanded athletic training facility, new offices and storage space and an academic learning center. The centerpiece of the project is The Parker Family Foundation Academic Learning Center, which houses the athletic department's academic support team and features 20 computer stations and private study areas.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A 1971 graduate of Northern Iowa, Rasmussen came to Creighton from Bettendorf (Iowa) High School, where he put together a three-year girl's basketball coaching record of 64-15. His 1978-79 club posted a mark of 27-2 and finished second at the state tournament. Rasmussen also coached at Maxwell (Iowa) High School, with a four-year record of 66-26, and Murray (Iowa) High School, with a two-year ledger of 31-13.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (20), David (18), John (14), Katy (10) and Grace (7).

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.33 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.25 cumulative GPA.
- The NCAA recently introduced a new tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. Seven CU teams scored a perfect 1,000, with the other seven considerably above the 925 cut off. Creighton's composite score of 987 tied for seventh among all Division I programs nationally.
- An impressive 103 of Creighton's 235 student-athletes (43.8 percent) earned a 3.50 GPA or better during the Spring 2005 semester. Nine of these athletes were Creighton volleyball players.
- Creighton had 131 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 76 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Twenty-seven student-athletes (11.5 percent), including three volleyball players, earned perfect 4.00 GPA's during the Spring 2005 semester.
- One-hundred sixty-six student-athletes (70.6 percent) earned a 3.00 GPA or better in the Spring 2005 semester.
- Seven teams (women's basketball, men's cross country, women's cross country, women's golf, men's tennis, women's tennis and volleyball) had team GPA's of 3.40 or better while five others were higher than 3.00.
- Creighton recieved the 2004-05 American Volleyball Coaches Association Team Academic Award for having a team GPA of 3.52 last spring and a 3.41 cumulative GPA. CU Volleyball also won the award in 1998, 1999 and 2004.
- Creighton owns 21 CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. Christine Fukumoto (softball) became the first CU player to earn first-team accolades since Heidi Geier in 1999.

Creighton Volleyball Wins 2004-05 AVCA Team Academic Award

The 2004-05 Creighton University volleyball team was honored by the American Volleyball Coaches Association as a recipient of the Game Plan/AVCA Team Academic Award. Creighton previously won the award in 1998, 1999 and 2004.

The award, initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors teams that displayed excellence in the classroom by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative GPA. Forty-five Division I schools qualified for the honor in 2004-05, including MVC rivals Bradley, Evansville, Indiana State, Missouri State and Wichita State.

"The Game Plan/AVCA Team Academic Award embodies the true meaning of the student-athlete concept, and the AVCA is honored to recognize these schools for excellence in the classroom," said Katherine McConnell, AVCA executive director.

Last spring, the Creighton volleyball team posted a GPA of 3.52, as nine student-athletes landed on the Dean's List (3.5 GPA or better). Ten of the program's returnees earned a 3.00 GPA or better in the spring.

Leah Ratzlaff and Brittany Coleman were both named first-team choices on the Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete team, while Janeen Piller and Ashley Williams were honorable-mention picks last fall.

Omaha is a rich cultural city with a dynamic business community. Ranked by Forbes magazine as one of the Top 10 Best Places for Business and Careers, Omaha balances Midwest values with big-city life in the heart of America. It showcases numerous nationally recognized and world-renowned attractions.

A center for information technology, telecommunications, transportation and food processing, Omaha is the center of a metropolitan area of about 734,270, with more than one million people within a 50-mile radius. Omaha is located near the geographic center of the United States, on the west bank of the Missouri River that forms the Nebraska-Iowa border. The metro Omaha area has seen steady growth over the past five decades and is now the 42nd largest city and 61st largest metro area in the nation.

With an outstanding public education system, Omaha was selected as a model of business-education partnerships to kick off America 2000. Nebraska ranks among the top states nationally for ACT and SAT scores. For 127 years, Omaha has been home to Creighton University, which is known as the best comprehensive Jesuit institution in the nation, consistently at the top of U.S. News & World Report annual rankings.

Omaha serves as headquarters for three Forbes 500 companies: #11 Berkshire Hathaway, #71 Union Pacific and #87 ConAgra Foods. More than 20 insurance companies, two dozen direct response/telemarketing centers and a number of other national and international firms also have headquarters in Omaha. The headquarters of STRATCOM, a vital military nerve center located at Offutt Air Force Base, is located in Omaha.

Omaha's unemployment rate has remained well under the national average during the past decade. Still, Omaha has accommodated new growth. During the 1990s, the Omaha metro area added more than 84,000 jobs, an increase of more than 25 percent.

Omaha is a cultural center of the Great Plains, with more than 20 live theaters (three that produce original works), a professional opera company, a regional professional symphony orchestra, a professional children's theater, a children's museum and a youth orchestra. Joslyn Art Museum and the Durham Western Heritage Museum are the two largest of many area art and historical offerings.

The Omaha Henry Doorly Zoo has an international reputation for its breeding programs, and its outstanding "no bars" facility boasts the world's largest indoor rain forest, cat complex and aviary. Its newest additions are a salt water aquarium, the most technically advanced in the country, an IMAX theater, the largest indoor desert in the world and a gorilla complex.

Outstanding sporting events in the area include the annual NCAA College World Series, for which Creighton serves as host, Omaha Royals (AAA baseball), the Omaha Lancers (U.S. Hockey League), the Omaha Beef (National Indoor Football League), the Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben Knights (American Hockey League) and a wide variety of collegiate and individual sports.

With all the city has to offer, Omaha enjoys a cost of living ranging up to 13 percent below the national average.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night.

Qwest Center OMAHA™ is home to Creighton men's basketball and the 2006 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championships. In 2008 it will host the first-and-second round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament as well as the US Olympic Swimming Trials.

For the 57th consecutive year, Omaha will serve as host city for the NCAA College World Series at Rosenblatt Stadium, June 16-26, 2006.

The home to Creighton volleyball and women's basketball, the Omaha Civic Auditorium is located just one block away from the eastern edge of the Creighton campus.

The building opened in the winter of 1955 and served as the home to Creighton men's basketball until the fall of 2003, when the team moved a mile away to luxurious Qwest Center OMAHA™. It is also the former home of the NBA's Kansas City/Omaha Kings.

More than $26 million in renovations has been spent in the last 10 years, helping to keep the 9,377-seat facility among the league's nicest and loudest home venues. In fact, no Creighton basketball or volleyball team has had a losing home record at the Civic since 1996-97.

From 2001-03, the Bluejay women's basketball team put together a 23-game winning streak that ranked second nationally to Connecticut. Likewise, the Bluejay men's basketball team was 44-3 in their final 47 contests at the Civic.

Last year at the Civic, the volleyball team had a total of 7,399 fans, a new single-season attendance record for the program. Included in this was a program-best 924 fans that saw Creighton beat Drake on Oct. 8, 2004.
